Minor Crime Wave Hits County over the Fourth

Theft of two automobiles and four butane gas tanks and nine housebreakings were reported by law enforcement officers over the Fourth of July weekend.

A 1957 Plymouth stolen about midnight Friday from Robert

Solomon of Harrison Courts, Bay

St. Louis, was picked up in Oak

Lawn, Ill., by FBI officers.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner Jr. said

he received a call Wednesday from the FBI agents, who said they had picked up Louis and Robert Dassau, brothers age 15, address unknown, as they were taking the car through Oak Lawn.

The pair will be held by federal officers on charges of transporting a stolen vehicle across a state line.

Four 25 gallon butane tanks were taken from three houses in the Bay area sometime last week. Deputy Sheriff Carl Garcia said two tanks were taken from the home of Louis A. Barattini

Sr., Jordan River Oaks, and one each from C. J. Dumestre, Second Street, Waveland, and a Mrs.

Twinkler, Nicholson Ave., Wavel-

land. In all cases the people live in New Orleans and are here only on weekends. Garcia said the tanks, above ground outside the houses are only attached by a thin copper tubing so that stealing is simple.

Nine houses were broken into last Thursday and Friday in the Bayou Phillips subdivision by three neighborhood youths, according to Sheriff Ladner.

The trio aged 7, 10 and 11,

cut screens and lifted the latches of windows to gain entry. The Sheriff said they took hunting knives, hatchets and other Boy Scout equipment, BB guns and cameras, three black paint and washing powder on the floors and shot out windows of the homes with the BB guns.

The youths are tentatively scheduled for trial before youth

referee Nellus Rhodes on July 16.

City police were called to

Bernie Piazza's home Monday night to investigate an attempted auto theft and a housebreaking.

The Piazzas were watching television about 10:30 p.m. when his wife saw someone looking in the window. Piazza got his pistol, went to the front door and found the boy.

He is being held by police pending investigation to establish his home and identity. The car, a 1953 station wagon, had been pushed into the street where two suitcases had been put in it.

Piazza said the boy, about 20,

said he was enroute from

Chicago, Ill., to New Orleans seeking a job.

A 1953 sedan was taken from

Gulf Chevrolet Co. on U. S. 90, between 5 p.m. Friday and 7 a.m.

Railroad, Central or Briarwood? Study Street Name

Streets in one way or another dominated Waveland Town Council's meeting Tuesday night. A O'Coon, manager of Gulf Paving Co., appeared in connection with some $4,000 withheld from his firm on a contract for paving town streets last year.

Mrs. Paul Loup of Railroad Avenue, Waveland, did not object to changing its name, but felt Central Avenue was esthetically not much better. She suggested Briarwood Avenue because of the briar patches in the area, but any name of more pleasing connotation and sound than Railroad or Central would suit her, she added. Council then deferred action on changing the avenue's name pending a poll of the affected residents.

O'Coon insisted his firm had constructed the streets in strict accordance with the contract specifications. He contended the pot holes subsequently appearing were due to unusually heavy rains and inability of the binding material to "bleed" because of cold, although laid within the dates specified by law.

After a heated exchange of words with Henry Denville and Burt Davis, one of the streets in question, he agreed that in places the width was not in accordance with the contract specifications, which he said he hadn't read, but that this was due because the road base was of insufficient width.

Mayor Garfield Ladner said he advised withholding the amount unpaid under the contract because County Engineer Enoch Kennedy told him paving was not up to specifications. Ladner also pointed out that at a meeting the night before going out of office and against his advice, the prior board of aldermen had authorized payment of $13,000 last Dec. 3.

Throughout the argument O'Coon offered, on behalf of his firm, to pay the expenses of any reputable, non-political engineer, experienced in road construction, to check if the streets had been laid according to specifications, and if the engineer found they were not his firm would do whatever the engineer said was necessary "even if it costs $10,000."

"I did not come here to collect $4,000, but to make this offer. My firm does not want a black eye, and wants to make you satisfied," he added. "What fairer proposition can I make?"

Council accepted O'Coon's offer and to abide by his decision after O'Coon said he would deliver the offer in writing to Mayor Ladner the next day. No such letter had been received after the morning mail Thursday. Council voted unanimously to accept the bid of $400 by Southern Cross Foresters, Atlanta, Ga., for a used trenching machine. Hinton Fire Equipment Co., Laurel, Miss., the only other bidder, submitted bids of $665 and $985 on two different new machines.

Council postponed action pending a legal study on a request by Stern for special permission to shoot squirrels on his property on Beach Boulevard. Stern explained he had 160 or 170 pecan trees being grown for experimental purposes in co-operation with Mississippi State University and that the squirrels were causing excessive loss of the nuts. Stern added that he wanted to cooperate with the town, but if necessary he would seek relief from the federal courts.

Two complaints dealing with water, insects and snakes were lodged. Capt. Wilson S. Witelsberger, who identified himself as John Doe to the reporter, asked council to have the north side of Nicholson Avenue near

Don't Forget Election Issue

Deadline for copy for the special pre-election issue which the Echo will publish July 23 has been extended until Thursday, July 16.

All candidates for offices in Hancock County are reminded to submit by that date a brief biographical sketch of themselves limited to 100 words and a 50-word statement of why the voters should vote for them. The Echo is publishing this section as a public service and there is no charge involved.

Absent Votes Due Aug. 1 For Primary

Applications for absentee ballots in the Aug. 4 Democratic primary will be taken from 8 a.m. Saturday, July 25, until 12 o'clock noon, Aug. 1. Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell announced this week.

The application forms and the ballots for the primary have arrived for the primary, he reported.

Mitchell predicted that a absentee voting this year will be far short of the 1955 figure as a result of a new measure enacted by the 1958 session of the legislature which provides that only servicemen and women away from home and intrastate transportation workers are eligible to vote in this manner.

Those engaged in intra-state transportation must apply between July 25 and Aug. 1. Service personnel can secure their ballots if a member of the family gives the address to the clerk's office between now and the election.

"Hancock County has the heaviest voting percentage per capita in the State of Mississippi," Mitchell noted. He added that Hancock also has an increase of approximately 1,000 registered voters over last election year. This year there are 6,715 voters registered.

All Postoffices in Hancock County except Klin will receive this speedier service. The change is a step in a long range postal program with the objective of next-day delivery between any two cities in the county.

The County Board of Education moved ahead with plans to expand Gulfview School at its session Monday, adopting a resolution calling on the State Education Finance Commission to approve addition of two classrooms to the structure with available county funds.

Two sets of preliminary drawings were submitted by Architect Charles Proffier, each providing space for some 60 more pupils. He asked the board to consider also future growth in the Lakeshore area, citing the development of the Ansley oil fields. "There could be a terrific influx there which no one would dream about now," he noted.

The resolution, citing the emergency situation existing at Gulfview, was offered by S. P. Powell and seconded by Alton Keller. Superintendent E. E. Bretland completed details with state officials in Jackson Wednesday. He said he was informed that the board was fortunate to have its allocation for North Central High School approved earlier since extensive school construction throughout the state would have reduced the county's allotment by some $37,000 now.

A delegation from St. Ann's parish Sacred Heart Mission at Dedaux, seeking to use the old school building there, occupied the bulk of the session. The Rev. Q. J. Johnson, pastor, insisted the board should be able to determine immediately what final disposition will be made of the structure and accused it of "evading the issue." He cited sorely needed improvements at

Candidates Clash at Meet

Two candidates for reelection to the board of supervisors came under fire at Monday board's meeting, apparently the result of the quickening political pace as the Aug. 4 Democratic primary approaches.

The arguments revolved about Beat-5 Supervisor R. G. Hubbard Jr., charged by August Scafidi, one of his primary opponents, with poor performance on road work, and Chairman Jack Lott who represents Beat 4, accused of raising property assessments of those politically opposed to him.

The complaint against Lott was raised by Robert Coleman of Fenton who said his taxes had been upped 50 per cent while others in the community hadn't been raised. He said that Lott's land, more valuable than his, was assessed at only $200 more.

Clerk A. C. Mitchell, checking the assessor's books, found Coleman's house was assessed at $250 and the land, fenced and improved, at $300. Lott's house was valued at $800.

The verbal wrangle between Hubbard and Scafidi, which occupied a major portion of the meeting, commenced after Lott asked Scafidi, until then a spectator, if he had anything to say. Scafidi inquired if there was a deadline on completing street blacktopping, particularly on Washington Street. Informed there was no deadline, he accused Hubbard of wasting money by surfacing the road without first providing proper drainage or foundations.

"I wish it would really rain now, just before election, so that the people could see the damage this lack of drainage does," Scafidi continued. He proceeded to inquire the frequency with which repairs are required on Main Street, to which Hubbard replied, "We fix the holes on an average of once a month."

As their voices grew louder, a number of spectators from the courthouse corridor gathered to observe the squabble.

Hubbard brought up the controversy over a culvert on U. S. 90 between land owned by Scafidi and Mrs. J. P. Morere. Scafidi protested that he had agreed to swap the necessary land "but not when they were going to destroy 50 or 60 feet of my front."

Ladner is meeting with the county board of supervisors each day this month to go over the real estate assessment rolls and equalize the assessments on real and personal property.

Tax assessment for the county this year amounts to $8,120,053. Last year's was $8,009,488.

Possibility of renting the old National Guard armory for $60 a month was outlined by the superintendent to supply the three additional classrooms needed for the fall term.

line property. "The highway department put a $10,000 drain there, but then you wouldn't let them have an easement. The department told me that if Mr. Scafidi wants a culvert in front of his building, it will have to be an open culvert in front of his building. "You should be ashamed, you've got the whole highway 90 blocked off," admonished Hubbard.

"You should be ashamed," replied Scafidi, "to do the things that you do with the taxpayers' money. . . They wanted to put an open ditch through the middle of my property. I would have agreed to a culvert at the edge of my property, but where they placed it would have made that 50-60 feet valueless."

R. L. Hamilton Appointed to School Board

Robert Hamilton, vice president of the Bay St. Louis branch of the Hancock Bank, was appointed Monday to the board of trustees of the Bay St. Louis Separate Municipal School District to fill out the unexpired term of Alton Siren who has resigned.

Hamilton's appointment was announced by Mayor John Scafidi at City Commission Council meeting after council had accepted with regret Siren's resignation.

Siren made public his plans to resign at the city school board meeting Thursday night, explaining his insurance business keeps him in New Orleans during the week and he is here only on weekends now. He asked that he be relieved immediately. He went on the board when City Commissioner Warren Traub resigned earlier this year was named to another five-year term.

Fire inspection, equipment, construction and preparation of the 1959-60 budget occupied the bulk of the time at the school board session. Superintendent J. D. McCulloch conferred behind closed doors with the trustees for about five minutes. He asked the Echo reporter to leave so he might speak privately.

On the motion of Dr. W. P. Henderson, the board authorized an appraisal of school property by a qualified building inspector to determine what fire hazards exist. McCulloch said there were only two places in Bay High School where there was a possibility of anyone being trapped and observed that slide poles to the windows of these two rooms would eliminate this hazard.

The only fire hazard in the building, the superintendent continued, is in the basement where the city has stored some mattresses that are used during blood drives. He said he has asked city officials to remove them.

Fee System Faults

Once long ago the fee system for paying many public officials was the only feasible method in many areas. The system, with all of its faults, was used throughout the United States. With increased population and communication it has been replaced by a salary system in all but a minority of states. Mississippi remains with the minority.

Two elective offices give simple examples of why the fee system has been discarded in most other states. The constable is paid so little that unless a well-to-do man, he has but two honest choices. He can have another full time job, which means he cannot be adequately available to perform his police duties as constable. He can work full time as a policeman and hope he can charge enough people with law violations and obtain convictions so that the fees will earn him a livelihood. While law violators should be fined or jailed, any constable might be tempted to bring in very minor violations or even to color his account of the happenings, since he gets his fee only if the person is convicted. A truly honest constable is hard put to make a living and at the same time properly perform his duties as constable.

The job of justice of the peace presents a different objection. Designed as a part time position with no legal qualifications necessary, it can be very lucrative honestly. In the seven month period, September 1958 through March 1959, without the heavy traffic of the summer season, one Hancock County JP made more than $4,200 dollars if the usual $5 fee were assessed against all those whom he found guilty. Again in the case of this job; no conviction, no fee. Many a well trained lawyer works full time for much less.

The Echo hopes that the State of Mississippi, by whatever means is necessary, will join the majority and abolish the fee system for paying public officials, and will abolish the job of constable.

Use or Lose?

This paper has previously pointed out that the Bay area merchants can afford to stock the merchandise needed by the community only so long as the people of the community make their routine, as well as emergency, purchases here. A somewhat parallel situation exists in connection with the commuter train. The more it is used the harder it will be for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company to get permission to discontinue it.

In addition, with the increasing traffic on U. S. 90, and with no present prospect of that highway being improved, commuting via automobile will become increasingly dangerous. Notwithstanding what we believe to be a preposterous 150 per cent increase in commuter rates effective last Monday, it is still true that only by using this facility will those, who want trains 9 and 12 kept on, be able to block a later move by the L & N for permission to discontinue. If you want these trains, use them.

Running for What?

A candidate for sheriff says he will advocate a change in certain state laws. A candidate for state senator urges a change in federal laws. A candidate for lieutenant governor promises to go to jail rather than obey a court order requiring racially integrated schools. Most of those seeking nomination for justice of the peace from Beat 5 speak of their interest in juveniles.

With all these views this paper agrees. So what! In no case are they related to the office for which the candidate is running, except that a lieutenant governor might succeed to the governorship. Unless the candidates or the voters are less intelligent than we hope, we suggest that candidates advance plans which, if elected, would apply to their job.

Figures don't lie, but liars can figure.

Gov. Earl Long in his campaign for re-election asks the voters to look him in the eye and if they think he's sane, then not to vote for him. Our suggestion is that, sane or not, don't vote for him.

NOTICE TO WATER USERS

In accordance with the regulations of City Ordinance No. 134, the use of water from the waterworks system for the purpose of watering lawns is permitted only between the hours of 7 and 9 a.m. and 5 and 7 p.m. of each day.

Due to the ever increasing demand for water, it is necessary to restrict the use of water for watering lawns to the above hours.

Congressional Sidelights

By Rep. WILLIAM M. CONNER
INDEPENDENCE DAY

We sometimes wonder if the meaning and significance of the various legal holidays have not become blurred or fuzzy in the minds of us all with the passing of the years and the tendency to commercialize the days. Independence Day is, in many ways, an example.

The day, of course, is the anniversary of the adoption, on July 4, 1776, by "the Representatives of the United States of America in General Congress assembled" of the Declaration of Independence. That immortal document enunciated for the first time many of the principles of freedom upon which our republic is founded.

There were the "self-evident truths," that all men are created equal that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness—That to secure these Rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just Powers from the Consent of the Governed.

There were, among the long list of abuses and usurpations charged to the King of Great Britain: "... Imposing taxes on us without our Consent; ... depriving us, ... of the Benefits of Trials by Jury; ... dissolving Representative Houses repeatedly, for opposing with manly Firmness his invasions on the Rights of the People."

There was also the ringing final pledge of this small but valiant band representing the 13 colonies: "And for the support of this Declaration, with a firm Reliance on the Protection of Divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes, and our sacred Honor."

DIXIE
We are indebted to our colleague and friend, Congressman Walter Rogers, of Texas, who writes one of the most readable weekly newsletters on Capitol Hill, for the following item, which we thought would be of particular interest:

"A Yankee friend of mine from Fredericktown, Ohio, Congressman Robert W. Levering, introduced a resolution extending congratulations to the people of Mr. Vernon, Ohio, as they commemorated the 100th anniversary of the famous song 'Dixie.' It seems that the composer of the song was one Dan Emmett of Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

"The story of the composition of Dixie is one with which I was not always familiar. It seems that Dan Emmett who is known as the father of minstrelsy in the United States for his first popular song 'Old Dan Tucker,' was desperate for a new song for a minstrel show in New York which was going badly. Dan had a deadline to produce a song that would pep up the show. The story is that during that period there was a common expression among people in the theatrical world who were not getting along so well. The expression was 'I wish I were in Dixie,' which simply meant 'I wish I were somewhere else besides where I am now.' At that time it had no relationship with the South. While brooding over the fact that he could get no inspiration for a new song, Dan Emmett kept repeating the expression to himself, and it was because of this that the song was born. The name of the piece was 'I wish I Was in Dixie's Land.' It pepped up the show and was a great success, but it was received with widest acclaim in the South. In fact at the outbreak of the Civil War it became the South's war song, its national song, its anthem and has been so associated ever since. When Jefferson Davis was inaugurated President of the Confederacy, the band played Dixie. When President Lincoln came out of the White House to address a crowd joyous that the great civil strife was ended, the conductor of the United States Military band asked him his favorite selection. Lincoln replied 'play Dixie.'

"Thus, Dan Emmett gave the nation its first national song of native origin. The Star Spangled Banner, America, and even Yankee Doodle were all times with overseas tones."

On Pacific Tour

Robert P. Fernandez, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Fernandez of 104 Nicholson Avenue departed for Hawaii, May 26, aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Lexington for a tour of duty in the Western Pacific.

Vicars From Other Newspapers

TWO CASES OF RAPE
On the evening of May 2 in Tallahassee, Florida, four white youths forced a 19-year-old Negro co-ed at Florida A and M University into an automobile and raped her repeatedly.

On the evening of June 19 in New York City six Negro youths forced a white 14-year-old junior high school girl into a corner of the school playground where she was raped repeatedly.

The Tallahassee case was a national news story. Southern newspapers, including those in Florida, covered it extensively and its developments have been front page news in the Northern metropolitan press, with prominent attention to the racial differences between rapers and victims. The New York police authorities in Florida charged all the white youths with a felony, prosecuted them diligently and swiftly, and they were duly convicted by a Florida jury. This week all four of the Florida youths, ranging in age from 16 to 23, were sentenced by a Florida state judge to life imprisonment.

The New York City case was not considered so newsworthy.

By Gone Days

10 YEARS AGO
July 6, 1949—Demands for the return of $94,361.18 allegedly misappropriated by the former commission council of Bay St. Louis have been filed by State Auditor Carl Craig. One demand charged the entire city council from 1944 to 1948 for repayment of $54,860 inclusive of alleged illegal expenditures and interest. The other charged misappropriation of $39,502.10 in ad valorem tax funds and water rentals in 1945, 1946, 1947 and 1948.

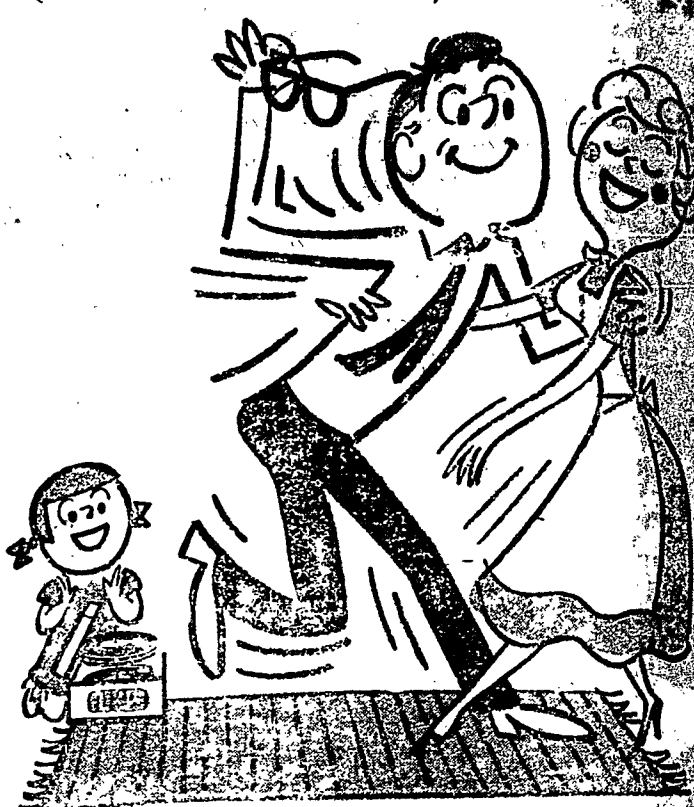

25 YEARS AGO
July 6, 1934—A quarter of a century ago the citizens of Mississippi through their chosen representatives prohibited on a statewide scale the possession, sale or manufacture of intoxicating beverages. Tuesday, July 10, they will go to the polls to rectify or rescind that action. A bill enacted by the legislature and signed by Gov. Sennett Comer provides for establishment of a system of county liquor stores operated under the supervision of a state liquor commission.

Best Room!

JUST ONE OF 7 Big Bests Chevrolet OFFERS you over any other car in this class!

Take a tip from the experts... in their own words... and from on-the-record facts and figures: More than ever, Chevrolet gives you more than any other of the leading low-priced three! More room to relax in, for instance. A sampling of official dimensions reported to A.M.A.* makes this clear. Chevy front seat hip room, for one thing, is up to 59 inches wider than comparable cars. And Chevy even offers more front seat head room than all but one of the high-priced cars!

Best Brakes Not only bigger, but built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life. Just to prove what's what, Chevy out-stopped both of the "other two" in a NASCAR-conducted test of repeated stops from highway speeds.

Best Style It's the only car of the leading low-priced 3 that's unmistakably modern in every line. "In its price class," says POPULAR SCIENCE magazine, "a new high in daring styling."

Best Engine Every motor magazine has given Chevrolet's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "... surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

Best Ride MOTOR TREND magazine calls Chevy "the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class." You'll be able to tell this yourself instantly once you take the wheel.

Best Economy No doubt about this: two Chevrolet 6's won't class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car, 22.38 miles per gallon—with Powerglide.

Best Trade-In Check in any N.A.D.A. Guide Book. Chevy car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

ADOPTS

THE PEOPLES PLATFORM

Having discussed the issues pertaining to the Sheriff's Office of Hancock County with thousands of citizens, I am thoroughly convinced that the future of any community is no better than its law enforcement body.

The proper way to run a Sheriff's Office is to PREVENT CRIME before it happens. Upon my election I will personally train my deputies to do a better job of law enforcement.

If elected your Sheriff, I intend to see that local homes and the homes of our summer residents are protected in their absence. These people have shown faith in our community by investing money in Hancock County. I think the Sheriff's Office owes these people ample protection.

MY MANY YEARS OF LAW ENFORCEMENT EXPERIENCE WILL HELP ME CARRY OUT THESE PLANS.

Home Agent Notes . . .

By GLORIA MAULDIN

LAUNDERING BLANKETS

You will be wise to wash dirty blankets before storing them for the summer. If yours is an electric blanket, check the manufacturer's instructions before washing it in a washing machine. Many electric blankets can be successfully washed in the machine, others must be hand washed.

The home economists at the Ohio State University developed a method of laundering woolen blankets that is quite successful. Follow these steps: Wash only one blanket at the time. Shake well. Treat excessively soiled spots with a solution of detergent or milk soap and water.

Fill washer with warm water. Add water softener if you use soap and your water is hard. Add detergent or soap and dissolve, then turn machine off. Put blanket in machine and let it soak 15 to 20 minutes. A very soiled blanket may be soaked for one minute, not longer. It will be well to soak it a few times while it is soaking.

Spin out the wash water. Shorten the spin period, if possible on your machine. Rinse in two deep rinses by letting the blanket soak no agitation) five minutes in water about the same temperature as wash water.

Spin out water after each rinse. Shorten the first spin period.

DRYING BLANKETS

You can dry the blanket on a clothes line. Parallel lines are better. Stretch the blanket as it dries. Brush with a stiff clean brush while slightly damp. This raises the nap and softens the blanket.

Or you may dry your blankets in your automatic dryer. Check your electric blanket instructions before putting it in a dryer.

Preheat dryer on high heat for 5 minutes. Add several (5 or 6) large clean bath towels and the blanket. Dry about 15 minutes and remove the blanket while it contains some moisture.

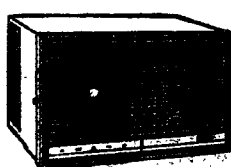

Stretch the blanket and let it complete drying in the air. Brush well.

TRY FRESH PINEAPPLE

The peak of the season that we see fresh pineapples in our stores continues through July. Check the prices, color and odor in buying. Color and odor are important in judging the quality of pineapple. A choice pineapple has a fresh, clean look, a dark orange-yellow color combined with a decidedly fragrant odor.

his home cleared of obstructions that were causing a pool of standing water three feet deep. He pointed to the probability of the condition breeding mosquitoes and snakes.

Mrs. E. C. Samuel asked if the town could do something to force E. V. Richards, whose property adjoins hers, to keep it clean of underbrush and the resulting stagnant water. She also feared the breeding of insects and snakes as well as damage to her property from dead trees and tree limbs falling on her land, particularly her flower beds.

Mayor Ladner explained that the town had no sanitation officer but would try to have something done about both situations.

Building permits approved were Jim Hawkins, addition in Tipples Subdivision, $200; John Vinurella, house on Vacation Lane, $5,000; George Band, house on St. Joseph, $5,000; Anthony Scavo, house in Jeff Davis Place Subdivision, $4,000; R. ## Wood Duck Numbers Still Good in State

The wood duck is the only wild duck which nests in Mississippi. This beautiful little duck has been reduced in number in many states, but has maintained a good population here. No doubt, the extensive woodlands of Mississippi which provide the wood duck with nesting sites, food and protection account for this.

In many sections of Mississippi, the wood duck is the most common duck throughout the year.

New Animal Food To Use Scrap Fish

A new product made from scrap fish and dry ingredients, used as an animal food, will be processed and bagged at a new plant to be built at Pascagoula by a large packing firm. The plant should be in operation by fall in an existing building to be leased. The product will be packed in fifty-pound multi-wall polyethylene bags and will be marketed in the midwest and north. Substantial amounts of scrap fish will be bought from fishermen of the area. The initial operation will be somewhat of a pilot plant; however, if the consumer market develops, the operation will be greatly expanded and employment will be substantial.

"You wouldn't give the land. You said, 'forget it, Manny, I have filled my land so that it won't fill up with water,'" answered Hubbard.
"That is a false statement," Scalfid replied.
In other action, supervisors approved a donation to the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce for a 8 by 16 foot Welcome to Bay St. Louis sign to be placed at U. S. 90 near the Motor Vehicle Weighing Scales. Cost of the sign was not determined.
It also gave assurance to County School Superintendent E. E. Brelaud of cooperation with his board's request for a loan to add two new classrooms at Gulfview School under 16th Section funds.
Payment of $78.17 to Brelaud was approved. He receives three per cent of the $2,605.82 section loan and interest from July 1, 1958, to June 30, 1959.
Also approved was payment of $30,044.80 to Perrillat and Rickey, contractors for the new Hancock County Hospital, and of $435.80 to Wilfred Dawson, architect, from the hospital building fund.
A $134 dragline bill was referred to the Soil Conservation Commission on the grounds it was not one of the board's draglines. Rejected was a $475 bill from Gulfport Memorial Hospital for treatment of Mrs. Mary Moran after Attorney Sam L. Favre Jr. explained charity patients could be cared for by the board only at the county hospital or the state facility at Laurel.
Hubbard suggested that the clerk write the Mississippi State Rehabilitation Center inquiring why it spends money to educate patients without provision for subsequent employment after Oren Bounds asked the board to get him a job. Bounds said the center had spent over $10,000 on his electronics training but he could not find employment.

until the fall session is under way and needs, particularly teacher housing, determined. Attorney Walter J. Phillips reviewed state law on disposal of school property. Some question arose over location of some of the buildings in Harrison County, although operated by the Hancock system.
Action was deferred until a recessed meeting at 9 a.m. Saturday on awarding a contract for transportation on Route 5 in the Fenton area, bids for which were received last month.
The board voted to advertise for bids on additional bleachers at the new North Central gymnasium.
Phillips suggested conferring with the state auditor on payment of lunchroom employees at Dejeaux School for holiday work after Mrs. C. B. Cuevas, the manager, appeared with her bill from the 1957-58 session for which there had been no funds.

Hancock Share Of U.S. Debt Is $8 Million

Hancock County's share of the federal debt is approximately $8,092,000, according to a recent estimate of the Mississippi Economic Council.
The council further asserted that if all property including homes, buildings, factories, land, public utilities, machinery, automobiles, livestock and household goods, in all counties in Mississippi, excluding Hinds, were sold, the amount would just about be enough to pay Mississippi's share of the national debt.
Assessed valuation of 81 of 82 counties, according to 1959 tax assessment rolls amounts to $1,197,000,000. MEC says that each state bears .42 per cent of all federal expenditures. By applying .42 per cent to the $1,197,000,000 which is the same as Mississippi's approximate assessed valuation excluding Hinds County.
The Economic Council asked citizens to write to congressmen and senators "about the evils of increased federal spending." The council said, "The picture of all Mississippi being sold, except say Hinds County, to pay the state's share of the federal debt is not a pretty picture. Only the people can change the trend."

Safety Tips for Farm Ponds

With increased interest in building farm ponds, one of the conservation practices encouraged under the Soil Bank and ACP programs, the Department of Agriculture has issued a number of suggestions on how to practice safety around such bodies of water.
The leaflet entitled Make Your Farm Pond Safe, the department points out that ponds intended for livestock water, irrigation or fire protection will also attract people for swimming, boating and fishing. After a pond is completed, the department urges the following safety measures:
Mark the safe swimming areas.
Place warning signs at danger points.
Place lifesaving devices such as ring buoys, ropes or long poles at swimming areas.
Post safety instructions for boating, swimming and skating. Never swim or skate alone. Use boats that will float if swamped or capsized.
Stay out of ponds during storms and when spillways are flowing.
Recognize that farm ponds are hazards to small children.

school on Dunbar Avenue, additional classrooms at Valena C. Jones School and a new lunch room at Waveland School for which a bond issue of $185,000 was floated, is being held up awaiting state funds of $56,620, Board Attorney Sam Favre Jr. reported. He explained that bids cannot be taken until the state sets the date for bidding. Because the bond issues, although already passed, may be contested and tied up in litigation, all funds must be on hand before bidding can begin, he added.
The board set a special meeting for July 30 to open bids on classroom desks, transportation maintenance, printing and various supplies for which it authorized advertising.
Chairman Wayne Allison reported that Waveland Mayor Garfield Ladner had inquired about obtaining a small lot behind Waveland Town Hall which belongs to the school district. Favre informed trustees that in disposing of school property, it must be offered for bids and sold for the highest price. If the property was deeded to Waveland for school use, only a transfer of title would be necessary. McCulloch was directed to get a description of the property and Favre to check the title before any decision is made.
The superintendent reported that 91,266 lunches were served in the school lunchrooms during the 1956-57 session for a total income of $1,989, including 9,947 free meals for cafeteria workers. He noted that all lunchroom workers were given a $5 raise during the year.
All lunchrooms in the district had financial gains over last year. This money, which amounts to less than $100 a school, will be used to begin lunchroom operations this fall. McCulloch explained that lunchrooms are required to spend all funds and cannot make a profit.

Woods and his wife have moved from Texas and are now making their home at 335 Main St., Bay St. Louis, this location being about the center of his business activities.

Christ Church Group Leaves For Youth Meet

Eight representatives of the Christ Episcopal Church in Bay St. Louis left Wednesday for Camp Bratton-Green at Way, for a Youth Council Workshop. They will return July 16.

Church leaders attending are the Rev. C. R. Johnson, who will be director of the workshop, and K. W. Pepperdine, diocesan board member for youth work. Church youth are Martha Allison, Gary Byrd, Nita Kay Erwin, Leslie Pepperdine, Ripple Rasmussen and Alfred Watts.

The group used the church school bus and picked up churchmen at Pass Christian, Gulfport, Mississippi City and Hattiesburg, en route.

During Mr. Johnson's absence, services at Christ Church will be conducted by neighboring Episcopal clergymen. The Rev. Vincent C. Franks, retired rector residing in Mississippi City, will be in charge of the three services this Sunday; the Rev. Durrie B. Hardin of Trinity Church, Pass Christian, will celebrate holy communion at 10 a.m. Wednesday, and Mr. Franks will conduct services the following Sunday, July 19.

Little Theater Tryouts Slated for 'Male Animal'

Tryouts are scheduled at 8 p.m. Wednesday for the Bay St. Louis Little Theater's next production, 'The Male Animal,' according to Mrs. Lloyd Griffith, acting publicity chairman.

The comedy was written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent, husband of actress Greer Garson.

This was the first three-act play presented by the local theater, being given in May, 1946, and theater officials hope to secure as many members of the original cast as possible for the second presentation.

It will be under the direction of Lucien Raymond and is expected to be ready for offering in late August, probably the weekend before Labor Day.

Mrs. Griffith urged all interested persons to tryout for the play. College-age persons are especially needed since the cast calls for several in that category, as well as those who would qualify as professors and deans. She noted that the current vacation season should provide a good opportunity for summer residents to take part in the show.

Dear Friends:
I would sincerely like to serve you as Justice of the Peace for Beat 5. I'll make you a good judge.

Many thanks,
Russell Elliott

Shoulda Gone Fishin'

By DAVID WEBB

The Gulf Coast boasts over miles of bass fishing waters. One of the greatest of all fish, bass, can be found in over miles of streams along the coast. Catches in coastal waters strip those in the catfish streams of the mountain region or the slim pickins of Northern lakes. While the bass in Southern waters are more plentiful and the catches usually more plentiful, the Southern bass are less cagey than his Yankee counterpart.

The bass takes to the plug in April through July. It takes a month's vacation, September he resumes his life with the fishermen and comes until February. He takes standard bass plugs, floating flies. He also goes for shrimp and minnows.

With rockets red glare, bass bursting in air, it's a thing the fish soon forget disturbances. If they didn't, fishing might be pretty poor at the coast after the big celebration. Despite all these some record breaking bass were landed in the Deep Fishing Rodeo. Makes me the old timers didn't know they were "sushin'" about as a boy they admonished be quiet.

Two oldtimers caught 74 lb and green trout on the River Saturday afternoon. In the catch was a 3 3/4 lb black bass.

The inlet waters to the Bay clearing with the resulting improvement of the sound. Fishing improved steadily with the tides.

These Breland missed all the rodeo Thursday when he caught a catfish in his knee. He said he and three friends "climbing" before the commin and when he picked up the catfish a fin caught in the kneecap and broke. He was taken to Gulfport Hospital where surgery was done to remove the fin. Sound was not serious.

A Sims of Bogalusa, vacation at Clermont Harbor with a group of friends, brought in a gill croaker Monday. Each was slightly under a pound and in the vicinity of 100, according to Joe Cure of Caddy.

Leaguers Altar Boys

Happy Mahfouz's Youth group beat out Father Adrian's Altar Boys 7-4 Tuesday night contest at the Carmine Field.

Strong pitched for the team in the six inning Mahfouz said strong hit Michael Lee and Strong's outstanding fielding second base were great factors in the win. Father Mercier's tough coming out with the ball, played a good game, several hits.

Leagues reported the number of Leaguers out had just under the 100 mark. Interest and sportsmanlike increasingly high. Leaguers plan to play a game with Biloxi Little League for next week. The league is working on baseball fields.

Georgi Keeps Hold On Top League Spot

Damp skies postponed softball play for the first time last Friday when CandS was scheduled to play Georgi's and Bay KC's to play Southern Realty.

In a make up game Sunday night, Georgi's sided past the C and S boys 5-4. Bay KC's and Southern Realty still have a game to make up.

With the exception of Georgi's long win - 24-6 over KC's Thursday night - all league games this week have been tight. Stiefel went down before Tra-

Light Question Of Sunday Tilt Delays Playing

An apparent misunderstanding over lighting at the ball diamond at Ullman Avenue delayed play Sunday night for about 30 minutes of a rescheduled game in the Bay St. Louis Softball League.

Because of the American Legion's three-day beach party over the Fourth of July to raise funds for its annual children's party, Mrs. Theo Tudury, chairman of the Parks and Playground Commission, notified league officials about game time that the lights were not to be turned on.

Subsequent protests by team players and sponsors brought Mayor John Scalfie and Commissioner J. Cyril Glover to the scene and they ordered the lights on. In accordance with the league's agreement at the start of the season to make up postponed games on Sunday nights, Glover yesterday declined to elaborate on the matter, terming it all "a big misunderstanding."

L & N WANTS TO CONTINUE COMMUTER SERVICE BETWEEN NEW ORLEANS AND PASS CHRISTIAN

Whether we can or not depends on you

There's been a lot of talk about railroads not wanting passenger business. As far as we're concerned, it's nonsense. L & N has always provided safe, comfortable, economical passenger service to the people of the South, and wants to continue to do so.

We particularly want to continue the commuter service between New Orleans and Pass Christian, but whether this service can be continued depends upon increased patronage and revenues.

The convenient schedules of L & N passenger trains No. 9 and No. 12 are shown below. On these comfortable, air-conditioned trains, you arrive in New Orleans in the morning, fresh and ready for your day's activities... and return home at night, rested and relaxed. Why not try this service?

QUITMAN LOTT

MAYOR QUITMAN LOTT MAKES HIS ANNOUNCEMENT FOR STATE SENATOR FOR THE FORTIETH SENATORIAL DISTRICT FOR L A M A R COUNTY, HANCOCK COUNTY AND PEARL RIVER COUNTY.

In announcing for this office, I first want to thank you for the fine vote you gave me in 1952, when I was elected in the first primary over two fine gentlemen, several hundred votes. I believe I made you a good Senator. I was appointed on nine committees, I served on the Finance Committee. No one has ever served on this committee in forty years back, from this district. I was the only Senator in South Mississippi appointed to draw the segregation Bill, to maintain segregation in our schools and raised the teacher salary and to build the Negro school and to keep them in their school. I introduced the Amendment to raise the old people appropriation from sixteen million to eighteen million. I introduced the Amendment to raise the per capita from $2.00 to $2.50 for the towns and cities. I am now serving on my sixteenth year as Mayor of my town. This experience in financing in city government and four years in the State Senate that I have will give me the insight of the workings of the legislature.

The things I would like to see brought about: I would like to see the Forestry Program expanded. I want to see the Industrial Board of this State expanded in ways that the small towns and cities will receive help in location of industries. I want to see the old people given more to live on. I want to see the school teachers receive more pay and keep our teachers in Mississippi. I want to see the Negro have good schools, and above all see that they stay in their schools at any sacrifice on our part. I want to see the aged people have a decent place to be cared for, when they have no one to look after them. I want to see our State reapportioned in the representation. Our people have shifted from North Mississippi to South Mississippi. I want to see many other things come to pass, but don't have the space to mention them. Now that the old agreement has been abandoned I would like to see all of you people vote for me as the next Senator. Let us elect a Senator and if he makes good, keep him up there so that he can be at the head of some of our most important committees. It will be impossible for me to see you all in this campaign as I have a big territory to cover. I will always work for my district and the State of Mississippi to the best of my ability. Let me quote a few words from a poem, "When I am old I would rather be the man that stands by the side of the road and watch my fellow men go by and know that they have plenty in their household than to have all the silver and gold." Your vote and influence will be appreciated. Thanks a million.

ANNOUNCES FOR
CIRCUIT COURT
CLERK

TO THE VOTERS AND ELECTORS OF HANCOCK COUNTY, MISSISSIPPI:

Please accept this as my official announcement of my Candidacy for the office of Circuit Clerk of Hancock County.

I am 43 years old, married and have three children; namely, Mary Toni 11, Sylvan 3rd. 9, and Don Richard 8 years old.

I am the son of Mrs. Jeanne A. Ladner and the late Sylvan J. Ladner Sr.

I was educated in the City Schools of Bay St. Louis and later at St. Stanislaus College from which institution I graduated in 1934.

In 1948 I was elected to the office of votes cast, over five opponents in the first Primary. In 1953 I was re-elected over three opponents in the first Primary.

In 1955 I entered the race for Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County. There were 14 candidates in the race. At the end of the first Primary I was second and at the end of the second Primary I was first. I was elected with a majority of 221 votes.

I have been privileged to serve the Citizens of Hancock County as your Sheriff and Tax Collector for the past four years and I am deeply appreciative of your electing me to this high and important office. I am very proud of my record as your Sheriff and Tax Collector, as I tried very hard to make you a good Sheriff and give you the service, that you as Citizens of Hancock County, so justly deserve. During the months of December and January (Tax Collecting time) and October (Tag purchasing time) I have kept my office open, more than the time required by law, for your convenience.

I was the first Sheriff of Hancock County, to set up sub-stations in each beat throughout the County to sell automobile tags during the month of October. This service enables car owners in various sections of the County to purchase their tags without having to travel a great number of miles and lose valuable time from their work and farms.

I am entering this race with the knowledge of the duties and responsibility of a good Circuit Clerk. I believe my experience as a City Commissioner for seven years and Sheriff and Tax Collector for the past four years helps qualify me for this very important position.

If I am elected to the office of Circuit Clerk the doors of my office will be open to you at all times to have personal talks with me about your problems as they have been while I served you as your Sheriff.

I urge an investigation of my record and refer to anyone who has had dealings with my office to give you facts as to how I have discharged the duties of my office in the past. I will do my best and at all times, keeping in mind that I am representing all of the people and that the office of Circuit Clerk is a trust to be conducted efficiently and honestly.

I am appealing to each and every voter of Hancock County for their support and approval of my record I have made as a public official. I hope to see around and see each and every one of you personally.

Respectfully,
SYLVAN J. LADNER, JR.
